Masons and their Ladies welcome

A Table Lodge is a dinner, with toasts and salutations as done in 1774
The reenactment is done in costume, based on the minutes of Lodge of Charity meeting in a room at The Devil's Tavern, Bartholomew Lane, London, England at eight of the clock on the evening of May 21, 1774, consisting of General Business and an Initiation.
Please join us for a mirthful evening, to be convivially spent in the support of a good cause,
Prostate Hope
